

I am in support of Long Distance competition and urge the Fcc to consider allowing SBC to compete for long distance customers in Michigan. It will give customers another choice for better service and increased value.